

The Designated Emphasis in Feminist Theory and Research: Progress Report

Directions Please note that the report should be updated during each visit. Students should pick up their D.E. file from the Women and Gender Studies office, 2222 Hart Hall, before each visit. The D.E. chair can help you select courses, approve course substitutions, sign forms, and help you stay on course. Students are strongly encouraged to see the D.E. chair at least once a year.

Student Information

Name _____ Student ID Number _____

Home Department _____ Email Address _____

Quarter Admitted _____ Expected Quarter of Graduation _____

Ph.D. Faculty Adviser _____ D.E. Faculty Adviser _____

Areas of Interest _____

D.E. Courses Completed

	Course	Quarter	Instructor	Final Grade
Required Course	WMS 200A
Required Course	WMS 200B
Course In Home Dept.
Course Outside Dept.

Qualifying Exam

Quarter Qualifying Exam was Passed _____

Members of the Exam Committee and their Home Departments (1 must be D.E. Faculty)

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

Areas of Examination (must include analysis of gender)

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Dissertation

Proposed Dissertation Topic (analysis of gender must be a substantial component)

Members of the Dissertation Committee and their Home Departments (1 must be D.E. Faculty)

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

Advising Log

Date	Comments/Notes	Initial

Date Final Verification Signed _____